Boots and Shoes.

WANT OF UNIFORMITY, AND HOW WE PREVENT IT. WE PREVENT IT.

The want of uniformity in Boois and Shoes, it is well known; equals if not exceeds that of any other kind of manufactured goods. In order to protect ourselves and eastomers, we make it a rule not to receive or place on sale any goods not regular and uniform, except they be too low in price to allow or uniformity. To hause this every pair of Boois and Shoos that enters our slove is carefully examined and rejected uniess found correct in aise, free from damage and uniform in quality.

GOODS EQUAL TO SAMPLES.
Buyers cannot generally devote the time necessary to examine beyond the samples shown. By our system of examination and rejection, buyers are protected from receiving goods inferior to samples. Aside from the recognized duty of dealing as we would be dealt by, we regard it as pocuniarily our interest so to ack as to secure and retain the confidence of all who may favor us with their trade.
